

Community Events Committee
Meeting Minutes
July 3, 2012

Attendance: Marjorie Gorman, Christina Goodwin, Les Dion, Barbara Greenwood, Chief Steve Yannuzzi

Meeting called to order 1:00 p.m.

Events:

4th of July event Concert Coverage

Christina, Les, Joe and Barbara volunteered to make sure that someone is at each concert. The concert checklist was reviewed in preparation for the first concert. Christina will have the Old Town Hall key on hand just in case for weather. Derek is checking supplies, cleaning up, mowing and putting out signs. Les will make sure a case of water is in the refrigerator.

Parade

Christina will drop flags off in the morning at the parade and either the center or the Babe Ruth group will hand them out during the parade. Christina will check with Ray to video tape. Otherwise the Lions Club is a go.

Other

Joe has been working on getting churches and other businesses to ring the bells on the actual 4th of July. The Fire Department agreed to blast their horn too.

Concerts:

Performers/Other

The performers are all booked and approved and advertising is in full swing.

Old Home Day:

Activities begin on Thursday, August 23 with the final concert of the summer concert series. Then on August 24, the Fire Department holds its annual spaghetti supper from 5-7pm. Then the full day of events beginning at 8:30 with registration and 5K road race and ending currently with the TTCC lobster and chicken supper.

Any antique cars will be on the park from 10:30 to 1:00. Bingo will be from 2:00 to 3:30. Lions are doing food, preferred that other vendors don't do hamburger or hotdogs, but Committee agreed that it was okay to do fries. Les will get in touch with the non-profits for the crafter/vendor fair. Barbara will check with the Friends of the Library to see if they will do donuts and coffee in the morning.

Les has contacted the tent company and it is all set. Martha Richards would like an Old Home Day booth.

Other

Add flag costs to the budget.

Farmers Market is a concern for traffic purposes at the entrance of the school and will be further discussed.

The next meeting for the Community Events Committee will be scheduled as needed in preparation for Old Home Day events.
