STONE WALLS:

Tom Ford had submitted photos of the stone wall on Hemphill Road that had been taken down during a log cutting project. The Commission looked at the photos and felt that they were mostly after-the-fact so are hard to tell what was actually removed. They discussed the fact that this is a Scenic Road and questioned if anything is needed to be done in this case. Mr. Dingman is going to research this.
